Current Adult Ed. Series – ProFuture

Faith: The Prodigal Species Comes Home

We are living in challenging and confusing times when religion and science each have a vital role to play in assisting humanity in coming home to reality. Given our impact on Earth's climate, soils, seas, forests, and other species, we are already in the early stages of what could be called the Great Reckoning. The good news is that this could also be the Great Homecoming: humanity—the prodigal species—after squandering our inheritance, coming home to life by honoring evidence as authoritative and ecology as the heart of theology.

ProFuture Faith: The Prodigal Species Comes Home is a curriculum developed by the Reverend Michael Dowd which features video presentations and group discussion. Rev. Dowd was a minister and author of the highly acclaimed book, Thank God for Evolution, as well as a well-known lecturer and passionate advocate for ecotheology. Join Pr. Colleen Nelson and Ruth Nickodemus for this six-week course during the adult education hour on Sundays in Fellowship Hall beginning April 12 at 11:00 am.

Watch Out for Fake Emails!

We have had several reports of a spammer pretending to be Pastor Allison. If you receive an email you think looks suspicious, the first thing to do is to check the email address.

You can do so by selecting the email, and then near the name of the person, you can select the 'more details' option. If the email address is anything other than her official email (pastorallison@standrewlutheran.com) it is a fake email! The best thing to do is report fake emails as spam and then ignore them. NEVER click on a link from an email that seems suspicious as they might allow hackers into your device and data. ## CONNECTING WITH THE ST ANDREW WOOD AND WETLAND

At St. Andrew we are blest to not only have a beautiful place to worship and enjoy each other's fellowship we also have over seven acres of riparian forest and wetland. This spring the Earth Care Team invites you to engage more fully with this beautiful space. We have several events planned that will allow you to Come Home to the Earth.

Mindful Walks

- Connect with mind, body, and spirit in the St. Andrew Woods
- Saturday April 18 11:00- 11:30 am
- Wednesday, April 22 1:30 – 2:00pm
- Thursday, April 30 11:00-11:30 am
- Thursday, May 14 11:00-11:30 am

Nature Walks

Experience the St. Andrew Woods into and beyond the Sanctuary of the Firs. We will offer mindful walks to connect mind, body, and spirit to nature. Mindful walks in nature have been known to reduce stress, improve mental clarity, and boost emotional balance. Members of the Earth Care Team will guide participants in this experience as we focus on breath, body, and environment.

Exploring Walk

- Sunday April 18th 11-11:30am
- For pre-school and elementary age children and their families
- Venture into the St Andrew woods to search for nature's treasures

For families with you children we offer an exploring walk to find awe in nature. Spending time in nature is crucial for children's physical health, mental well-being, and cognitive development. It reduces stress, improves attention spans, boosts immune systems, and encourages physical activity, while stimulating creativity and curiosity that indoor environments cannot match. For those who wonder what is beyond the well-worn path to the Sanctuary of the Firs we will offer an Adventure Walk. You will see how beavers have shaped the wetland, and appreciate the ongoing work volunteers at St. Andrew and our community partners are doing to restore the property to it's native state.

Adventure Walk

- Visit the rugged areas of the St. Andrew Woods
- May be strenuous
- Wear boots
- Saturday, May 9 - 10-11am

All Generation Earth Camp

You are never too young, or too old to come home to Earth. The Earth Care Team is offering an opportunity for everyone to experience the fun and learning that occurs at our annual children's Earth Camp. On Sunday June 14th, at 11am participate in interactive teaching stations, crafts, music, and celebration. Lunch will be provided for those that sign up in advance.

Look for more information about these events in upcoming Weekly News articles and on the Earth Care bulletin board, across from the coffee bar.

What Really Happens After You Drop Off Recycling? Pt. 2

Adapted from Earth911, March 2026

Last week, we learned about how recyclables are collected and transported, what happens at the Materials Recovery Facility, and how those materials are processed into new products.

The contamination problem: one of the biggest threats to effective recycling is contamination. When non-recyclable items are placed in recycling bins (often with good intentions called wish-cycling), they can cause entire loads to be rejected and sent to the landfill.

Common contaminants include:

- Plastic bags in curbside bins
- Food-soiled containers
- Garden waste
- Diapers and textiles
- Tanglers like hoses, cords, rope, string lights, and wires

Reducing contamination requires clear communication, consistent labeling, and public education. The more accurately we sort at home, the more likely materials are to be successfully recycled.

The energy and climate equation: recycling generally saves energy compared to producing materials from virgin resources.

For example:

- Recycling aluminum saves 90-95% of the energy required for primary production.
- Recycling paper reduces the need for logging and lowers water usage.
- Recycling plastic can cut greenhouse gas emissions compared to manufacturing new resin from fossil fuels.

However, recycling is not a silver bullet. The environmental benefits depend on clean material streams, efficient processing, and strong demand for recycled content.

But wait! There is something better than recycling! While recycling is important, it sits below reduction and reduce in the waste hierarchy. Meaning buy less in the first place and use what you already have. The most sustainable product is the one that was never made. Choosing durable goods, repairing items, and embracing refill systems can significantly reduce the volume of materials entering the waste stream.

When disposal is necessary, understanding the journey of recyclables can help us make smarter decisions. Proper sorting, supporting recycled-content products, and advocating for better waste infrastructure all play a role.

The takeaway: The path from your recycling bin to a new product is far more complex than it appears to most of us. It involves advanced technology, human labor, global trade, and shifting economic conditions. Each stage; collection, sorting, processing, and manufacturing presents both opportunities and challenges. By learning what happens after recyclables leave our homes, we can improve our habits and strengthen the system as a whole. Recycling doesn't end at the curb; it continues through a chain of processes that depend on informed, engaged consumers. And when we understand that journey, our small daily actions gain greater meaning and greater impact.

A Call to Action!

Whistles in the Narthex and Volunteer Opportunity!

Washington County Whistles arose as a response to DHS/ICE and their goal is to get whistles into the hands of immigrants and allies. Washington County Whistles has provided us with free whistle kits in the Narthex (located on the table where we normally keep magazines).

They are free, please take one (or two or three)! Each kit includes a whistle, instructions, a PIRC information card, and a Know Your Rights Card.

WCW is also asking for volunteers should you want to help out more! Production and distribution of kits usually happens 1p to 4p on Sundays—so it is a perfect after-church activity! Please contact Julie for more information regarding volunteering or if you'd like a whistle basket for your work/business: HUMANSILBATO@proton.me

Volunteers Needed for SALC Grounds

Do you like gardening? Enjoy yard work? You might be a perfect volunteer for the Grounds team! We need a few more volunteers who can help out with keeping up the beautiful grounds of St. Andrew Lutheran.

Contact Bill Beavers ( beavers1171@comcast.net ) or Liz Hardy ( elisa-bethhardy6@gmail.com ) for more information!

Your Voice is Needed

Have you had trouble finding a Primary Care Provider? Are you concerned about the safety of our immigrant neighbors? Metropolitan Alliance for Common Good has been looking into it.

Please attend the next gathering of people from other MACG member institutions as we hear what has been happening and discern together where we go from here. The Delegate Assembly will be this Sunday, April 19th, 3-5 pm, at St. Andrew Lutheran Church. We have several people who have volunteered to help make this a welcoming event, but we could use a few more. Can you help set up tables? Come at 1:45 and pitch in. Are you able to help direct parking? Come at 2:00 and be a friendly presence in our parking lot. Can you help take tables and chairs back down at 5:00? Plan on staying a bit longer when we are finished. Please register here for the gathering: <https://forms.gle/p9tA7kosSg1GfhLb6> . Or, simply come at 3:00 and we will welcome you. MACG is at a bit of a crossroads concerning our actions on access to primary care and safety for immigrants, and we could really use your input as we decide our next steps.

If you have a St. Andrew tee shirt, please wear it to the assembly. If you have registered, you should have received an email with some important documents to read before the assembly. Please let Pat Christiansen know if you did not receive the email. Questions? Ask any member of the St. Andrew Organizing Team: Pastor Allison, Sonja Ackman, Gretchen Bancroft, Larry Bliesner, Pat Christiansen, Amy Peahl, or Lynn Santelmann.

Have You Signed Up to Help with LWR Yet?

We still need your help to make the Spring 2026 Ingathering a success! You can greet vehicles as churches drop off their boxes of kits and quilts for Lutheran World Relief (LWR), or load the shipping container with those same boxes (some of which may weigh up to 40 pounds). On Friday, May 1, volunteers will have their choice of a 2-hour shift between 8:00 am and 4:00 pm, while on Saturday, May 2, a single three-hour shift starts at 9:00 am. The Ingathering takes place in the St. Andrew parking lot near the community garden. Please sign up on the sheets posted in the narthex, or email Randy at sinn78home@gmail.com or Rochelle, at her LWR address, pacificnwlr-group@gmail.com.

Spirituality Book Group News

All are welcome to join the Spirituality Book Group for any of their meetings, which are held monthly in the St. Andrew Library (Main Level) at 2:30 pm. Below are the upcoming dates and the titles selected:

May 17: Sandy Koch will lead discussion on Black Cake by Charmaine Wilkerson.

June 7: Lindsey Trowbridge will lead discussion on A Year of Biblical Womanhood: How a Liberated Woman Found Herself Sitting on Her Roof, Covering Her Head, and Calling Her Husband Master by Rachel Held Evans.

Multigenerational Listening Session – Follow-up

What's up with the conversations we had this winter about intergenerational church? At the end of February many members of the congregation met to hear the results of the listening sessions we had late last fall. We identified themes that our older and younger members had in common and identified a number of low-cost activities that can help St. Andrew work toward this goal. At our February meeting, congregation members indicated activities that they are interested in and those they are willing to help organize. From that list, the Community Organizing Team identified five activities that had the highest number of people willing to pitch in to start:

- Fan clubs: organizing congregational members to attend sporting, arts, and other events that congregation members are part of, focusing first on supporting our youth.
- Babysitting at church. The under-40 supper club were the first to take advantage of this.
- Generation-specific supper clubs. This is underway, we now have an under-40 and a 40-55 supper club!
- Sit in a different place Sunday – stay tuned!
- Progressive worship – Pastor Allison and the worship planning team have talked to our youth and more conversations will be forthcoming.

The Community Organizing Team will continue to work with congregation members to identify leaders and launch these activities. The goal of the Community Organizing Team is not to take on these ourselves but to help equip congregation members to lead those things that are meaningful to them.

Ecumenical Event for Young Adults

Sunday, April 26 is the first iteration of a new experimental event for young adults, thanks to a collaboration between clergy and lay-leaders at St. Andrew, Spirit of Grace, Cedar Hills UCC, and First UMC Cedar Mill. For this first event, young adults (ages 18-40) will gather from 5:30-7:30pm at Mazatlan Restaurant in Goose Hollow for an evening of drinks, fellowship, and deeper conversation. The topic of the night is truth--how do we recognize it despite living in an era of AI, propaganda, and misinformation? If you're interested in attending, rsvp with Kyler and invite a friend to join you!

It takes a village to make Earth Camp possible. If you are able to volunteer for Earth Camp 2026, please contact Camp Director Kyler Vogt so he can find the right place for you! Five-day volunteers are always very much needed. We ask that volunteers do their best, though, to participate for at least three days of the camp if they cannot do all five days. Please talk to Kyler if you're interested in volunteering for the first time!

Earth Camp 2026

We continue our search for an Assistant Director to work alongside the Camp Director to help with organizing and running Earth Camp 2026. The Assistant Director manages pre-camp administration, aids in volunteer coordination, and assists the Director throughout the week of camp. The position is part time and pays a $2,500 stipend. ## News around the office

Hi all,

It is Amber again. We are hoping Martin will be back in next week. Please pray for an easy return back to work for him!

This week has been a fairly quiet week, other than the delivery of the new office printer – which we decided on because it is more energy efficient and will cost us less month-to-month!

I want to draw a little attention to our Facebook this/upcoming week(s). Next week is all about Earth Care, including a few posts about books about why Christians should care about the environment and some environmental science book recommendations since Earth day and World Book Day are next week! When I was studying at the University of Portland I took a few courses about environmental science and Catholicism – my favorite was a combination of the two that really opened my eyes to the kind of work that can be done when we take care of the Earth as a way to honor deity. I suggest checking out a recommendation or two from your local library so you can broaden your mind on the topic or buy from your local bookstore (Powell's might be a great place to start)!

Finally, I would like to mention that if you are part of one of the Ministries/Teams/Committees that needs to turn in information for the Annual Report, there will be another reminder for you next week to turn that in! They are due April 28th unless we have agreed upon a different date! Thank you in advance!

Hopefully everyone is staying safe and dry!
